From the Baron and Baroness

U nto all the gracious and hardworking gentles of the grandest barony in the Kingdom of the Outlands do your Baron and Baroness, Sir Trevor and Lady Fermina, send their gratitude and warm, winter tidings! Our hearts are full of joy as we have witnessed the generosity, hospitality, skill at arms, and skill in arts of so many people this past month.

Congratulations to Their Royal Majesties, Maelgwn and Cainnleach. We know the kingdom will continue to grow and flourish during their reign. Coronation was kindly hosted by the good gentles of the Shire of Fontaine dans Sable. We look forward to the day we may visit with them once more.

We thank Lady Shoshana for organizing a wonderful weekend of Turkish and Persian arts, history, and feats of arms. We greatly enjoyed the wonderful sideboard of sumptuous foods prepared by Lady Aisha as we sat in salon amongst our friends. Lady Morgaine was extremely patient with the many of us whom she taught several line dances throughout the weekend. Lady Fermina especially enjoyed the opportunity to dance on the field with the several ladies and gentlemen in their armor. We especially thank those good gentles who traveled from afar to teach the many classes that were held. Thank you!

Once again, the College of St. Goliath hosted a fine and fabulous feast! The hospitality and revelry shared with us was beyond compare. We have enjoyed the company of the many fun and friendly members of the college so much that we have invited them to share in our own hospitality come Estrella War. We hope that they will camp very near to our barony and share the many amenities we will make available this year. Huzzah, St. Goliath!

Lady Fermina had the most fabulous time at the tournament hosted by the Company of St. Martin. She was extremely proud of so many things she saw throughout the day. The pageantry, chivalry, grace, skill, and generosity shown by all were an example for all the Known World to see. A day such as that could only be embellished by the delicious feast and fine dancing of the Masked Ball that followed. To the Company of St. Martin and Lady Tessa, you make al-Barran shine brightest among the stars of the Outlands!

Toys for Tots was once again a great success! We collected 743 toys for under privileged children within our community. We could not be more proud! Thank you, Lord James David for all of your diligent work.

Midwinter is fast upon us. We hope to enjoy the pleasure of the company of all the people of the barony on Saturday, December 15th. Please join us for the grandest feast of the year and dancing into the night.

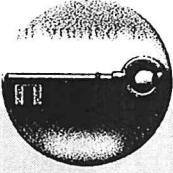

Please look to articles in this issue for further information on upcoming events such as the Scorpion's Hockey Game and Estrella War.

Be safe and warm in your journeys until we may all meet together again!

Trevor

Fermina

From the Seneschal

Greetings,

*"This night I hold an old accustomed feast
Whereto I have invited many a guest
Such as I love, and you among the store:
One more, most welcome, makes my number more.
At my poor house look to behold this night
Earth-treading stars that make dark heaven light."*

Romeo and Juliet

Midwinter is upon us. I hope everyone has their garb ready and will not have to be stitching on the way to the feast. We have the greatest hall and the best food plus Duchess Madigan has a wonderful day planned for everyone, so please join us. Also, let it be known to all fighters that there will be a war practice Sunday following Midwinter.

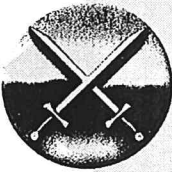

There are still Scorpions hockey tickets available for the game the night before Midwinter. It was truly great fun last year and promises to be the same this year. It is also a worthy cause as they are also raising toys for us for Toys For Tots.

After Midwinter all thoughts should turn to WAR! Estrella War that is. The Barony of al-Barran is going to try to make this War as enjoyable as possible for our populous and the Kingdom as whole. If you would like to help in this worthwhile effort please contact Countess Aindrea.

In Service to the Dream

From the Knight Marshal

Greetings,

I will begin marshalling classes at the War Practice that will be held on Sunday following Mid-Winter. I have already had several members express an interest in becoming an authorized marshal for War. Remember it is a great way to get up close to the fighting, and you don't have to be a fighter to do this. Classes will begin about one hour before fighting is to start, and then you will need to marshal practice for a while in order to get your card. Also, please don't forget to bring your current membership card with you.

And speaking of membership cards, please check both your membership and fighter authorization, and be sure they are up to date. You cannot fight at War without current cards. If your authorization is about to expire please get with me about this as soon as possible.

War is soon upon us!!! Please attend as many practices as possible. The better prepared we are the greater glory our victory will be on the fields of Estrella. For those with access, you can download a copy of the treaty from the Web. This includes all scenarios for all three days of fighting. There are no major changes from other years as far as weapons and armor are concerned. Low profile thrusters will once again not be allowed. If you have these they must be made larger, or not used. Please check your armor and weapons, and make sure they are in good repair. It is certainly no fun if you have traveled all the way to Estrella, and can't fight because of broken equipment.

In conclusion, I would just like to thank all those good gentles that made Toys for Tots such a success. Your help is invaluable.

In Service,
James David

From the Hospitaller

Greetings unto the Populace of al-Barran.

My name is Bronwen Blackwell and it is my honor to be accepted as the new Hospitaller of al-Barran. I shall endeavor to live up to the standards set forth by my predecessor.

I would like to call upon the populace for help in a few areas. First, I am the set-up coordinator for Midwinter and I am looking for a few good gentles to help in the set up of our Yule festivities.

Secondly, we are still in need of loaner garb. Breeches, tunics, and children's garb is in high demand. As well as loaner armor for both heavy and light fighting.

Please feel free to contact me on putting these items to better use or if you would like to be on the set-up committee for Midwinter. My email is Bronwyn@alnwick.net, my home phone number is 281-6440 and my work phone number is 281-9111.

Yours in Service,
Lady Bronwen Blackwell

From the Chronicler

Greetings on this winter day in our fair barony!

At long last the al-Barran phone directory is ready! It has been mailed out to all current subscriber's of the Baronial Shaft, but don't worry there are some extras for new subscribers and old subscribers finally renewing their subscriptions. I wish to thank Duchess Leah, Lady Danica, Lord Adam, Isabelle, Wilhelmina, Cristin, and Kathryn for proofreading the directory. It was not possible to get it to the printers in a timely fashion without their help. If there are any mistakes in this issue of the directory they are my mistakes not the proofreaders. Please let me know about any mistakes so that they may be corrected when the next directory comes out in the future.

The next project to be worked on is the website, so hopefully in the near future you will see a long needed update of email addresses done to the website and a new look for our barony's website some time after that.

As always there is a call out for artwork, articles, etc. please contribute to your newsletter. The deadline for all contributions to the newsletter are due on the Tuesday of the citizen's meeting, if an article must be late you can get it to me at the park during fighter practice the following Sunday or by email up to a week after the citizen's meeting.

- 1 Tablespoon ginger
- 1 inch of stick cinnamon
- 1 1/3 cups orange juice

Add in orange and lemon juice; mix well, strain out allspice, cloves, and cinnamon through cheesecloth or metal strainer. Stores well for several days in the fridge until ready to be served. Heat to boiling before serving. Makes 6 (8 ounce) servings.

According to several singers, this is a good drink right before singing and also after singing as it helps soothe the vocal cords and throat.

6 inches of stick cinnamon
1 teaspoon of whole allspice

Remove and discard spice bag from cider mixture. Serve cider garnished with orange wedges, if desired. Makes 8 (8 ounce) servings.

Mulled Wine

2 lg(1 1/2 L) of dry red wine
2 thin strips orange peel, orange side
12 Cardamom pods, slightly crushed
6 cinnamon sticks
2 teaspoon whole all spice
2-teaspoon whole cloves

SCA-Citadel of the Southern Pass

Their Excellencies, Conrade and Leah, Baron and Baroness of the Citadel of the Southern Pass, entreat you to join them in the safety of the Citadel for a sumptuous feast and revelry; as well as activities martial, to be held on the 12th day of January.

The NEW Site is located at Loretto Academy, a beautiful site with a finer hall than the old. Tentatively, Court will be held at 5PM with the feast to follow. During the feasting and after, you will be entertained by the renowned Clann Tynker. Saturday's War Practice will start at 11 am and will be held at the regular site in Memorial Park.

Their Excellencies would like to, at this time, dispute the ongoing rumors that the Plague has been reported in the Citadel. This is categorically untrue. While the wild lands of Argonia have had incidences of this malady, no truly substantiated cases have been reported by our learned physicians. You will be able to enjoy the feast and revelry within the strong and well-guarded walls of the Citadel with no concerns for your well being or that of your companions. The most learned doctor Goffolino upon consulting many an ancient text has discovered that the ancients advise the wearing of a Topaz or Bloodstone amulet to protect against the Plague should you encounter it on your journey to the plague-free lands of the citadel. If you desire, you might also wear a garland of garlic, as prescribed by the learned doctor Schiazzobuzzo. Her Excellency suggests, that if you follow his advise, you add lavender or violets to temper the effects on those around you.

The feast style is that of the Romance lands.

Tentative menu:

Appetizers: Bread, honey butter, plain butter, cheeses, marinated mushrooms and olives.

First course: Fruit soup, Chicken simmered in herbs and wine, Root vegetables and Rice.

Second course: Losenges (lasagne), and Green Peas.

Third Course: Roast rib of Beef, Stewed Fruits.

Desserts: Buffet

Meat Smoking Article Correction

It had been brought to my attention that I omitted a step in my recent article in the Baronial Shaft (April 2001 issue) on smoking meat, that I failed to give the proportion of salt to water for the brine solution. Use 1/2 cup of salt per gallon of water. Omission corrected.

Estrella War

Unto the people of the most glorious barony of al-Barran does Countess Aindrea Mac Cullaich send most joyful greetings and hopeful salutations—

Know all that foremost in Their Excellencies' minds is the comfort and joy of their populace. To this end, many things are being coordinated so that Estrella War ease the endeavors of all al-Barranians who attend.

There will be a central gathering area for al-Barran and our friends, where one might have a hot beverage on a cold night or morning, perhaps have a light repast (provided in part by Lord Lazarus), and read the schedule of activities or messages from friends. Our Bell will call us together for muster, gather us for Guido Court, and tell us when to the baronial stew (dished out by Helga Tynker) is ready.

Our warriors will not have to fight all day without sustenance. Lunch will be taken to them in the battle pit, so their strength will last.

al-Barran, come together! Let us all follow our Baron to war! Get all your buddies to go to war with you! If you can help or if you need help, let me know. At Their Excellencies' behest, I stand ready to assist in the coordination of al-Barran's fun at Estrella.

Yours Assured,

Tops for Tots Thank You

Greetings,

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all those that contributed to our Toys for Tots effort. We raised 743 toys, and we haven't even had the hockey game yet (insert shameless plug to buy tickets here:) At any rate there were some individuals that I would like to thank for going above and beyond for the event.

Mistress Cailte for counting and bagging all the toys, and her crew.

THL Emma and Mistress Kathryn for running the lists

Lady Bronwyn Jacobic for organizing the marshals

Lady Bronwyn Blackwell for providing all the outstanding food, as well as all those that donated to the groaning board.

Lady Danica (Danitsa) Nemanja for running the prize table.

Cristobal for organizing the field heralds.

Don Govanen for organizing and running the rapier tournament.

Seamus for waterbearing.

And all those that helped set up and take down the event, Lord Ryan, Lord Arslan, Lord Brian, Lord Kovac, Lady Bridget, and countless others that I know helped, but that I did not get their names.

Without all these good gentles this event could not have happened. I would like to congratulate Sir Jaxx for winning the title of Defender of the Children. I would also like to thank Their Excellencies for giving me the opportunity to autocrat this occasion.

Yours In Service,

James David

Court Dancing

Court dance practice for December will be held at fighter practice park (Jeanne Bellamah Park) on Sundays, Dec. 2 and 9 from noon to 1 PM (and potentially after 3 PM on those dates, as well). Any youth, age 7 through 19, who wishes to perform at Mid-Winter, needs to make both these practices, as we'll be working on their performance dances. I have started 3 youth court dance groups from the youth who have been attending our court dance practices at the park. Any youth, age 7 through 19, is welcome to be a member of these performance groups. Huzzah to Lady Isabella al-Harith, who taught court dancing at the Masked Ball.
